

Enter the MURDER ON MONDAY Competition

Answer these questions about Isabelle's hometown and win your part in the show

Is there a cathedral in Royan ? If yes, give its name. If not, explain why.	Yes No
There is a well in Saint Palais called "Le puits de l'Auture". Was it used to fetch water ? If yes, say how it was used. If not, explain what it was used for.	Yes No
One of the most interesting building in Royan is in the shape of a sea shell. Does that mean that it is the fish market ? If yes, say what sort of sea shell it is. If not, say what the building is used as.	Yes No
You can see a couple of old disused tunnels along some of the beaches around Royan. If they were they for trains or motor traffic, say where they are. If not, say what they were for.	Yes No
Is there a casino in Royan ? If yes, say where it is. If not, say if there is one elsewhere and where that is.	Yes No
Is there a castle in Royan ? If yes, say what sort of castle it is. If not, find something which is called a castle and explain what it really is.	Yes No
The "Chemin des Douaniers" goes through the "fairies' estate". Is this fairies' estate a mansion house? If yes, say what it is used as. If not, say what it is.	Yes No
The "Devil's bridge" was built by the devil who took a fisherman's soul as payment for his work. In the end, was the fisherman's soul saved ? If yes, say how. If not, explain why.	Yes No
One of the highest lighthouses in France is near Saint Palais but can you visit it ? If yes, say how many steps there are to the top. If not, say how tall it is.	Yes No
Finally, have the English always been welcome to Saint Palais ? If yes, find something which celebrates the long lasting friendship between England and France. If not, find the trace of a conflict between the two nations.	Yes No	